

ALTHORP HOUSE

Friday 16th - Saturday 17th July

£125 per person

Price includes: 1 night's Dinner, Bed & Breakfast at the 4 star Holiday Inn, Kenilworth, (formerly the De Montfort Hotel), plus a special tour with exclusive access to Althorp House and its grounds.

Not Incl: Single room supplement £15 per person

FRIDAY – We leave Bretonside at 8am and head towards Sanders Garden Centre for a coffee stop. We then continue onto Stratford upon Avon where you will have time for lunch and maybe a spot of sightseeing. We then travel the short distance to our hotel arriving mid-late afternoon where you can relax and unwind before your evening meal is served.

SATURDAY – After breakfast we travel to Althorp - the final resting place of Diana, Princess of Wales celebrated with an award winning exhibition of her life. Also displayed is 500 yrs of Spencer family history throughout the nineteen magnificent rooms. There are also extensive grounds to enjoy, including the poignant Round Oval where Diana is laid to rest, just a short stroll from the house. After touring at your leisure you will be taken to the opulent State Dining Room, which is not normally open to the public, where you can enjoy afternoon tea and sandwiches. This is a special room which has been modelled on the ballroom at Buckingham Palace. We will leave Althorp mid afternoon aiming to arrive back in Plymouth around 7pm.
