THURSDAY – We depart Bretonside at 7am, making a comfort stop along the way, before visiting the National Memorial Arboretum where there are memorials of all wars surrounded by 50,000 trees of various species (suitable walking footwear is advised), refreshments are available in the restaurant. We then continue onto our hotel arriving in plenty of time for our first evening meal.

FRIDAY – Holmfirth is our destination today where we will have a guided tour of the film locations featured in "Last of the Summer Wine" the popular light hearted television programme.

SATURDAY – Today we visit Renishaw Hall & Gardens where you will have an exclusive guided tour. You will be greeted with a complimentary cup of tea or coffee, followed by the tour of the Manor House and 300 acre gardens, you will then return to the restaurant for a light lunch and later an afternoon cream tea.

SUNDAY – We will travel across the delightful Peak District today and visit the Trafford Centre, a magnet for shopping enthusiasts in the Manchester region.

MONDAY – Our journey home today will incorporate a coffee stop and a visit to "Stow on the Wold" for a longer lunch break. We aim to arrive back into Plymouth around 7pm.
