SUNDAY – We depart Bretonside at 9am and make our way to Gloucester where you will have time to explore the town or Cathedral and have lunch. We then make our way down to our hotel with plenty of time to relax before our evening meal.

MONDAY – We travel to the lovely town of Caerphilly with its castle – the 2nd largest in Great Britain. We then visit St. Fagan's – one of Europe's foremost open air museums, standing in the grounds of St Fagan's castle with over 40 original buildings from different historical periods, including a school, houses, farm and a splendid Workman's Institute.

TUESDAY – Today we make our way to the attractive, bustling town of Abergavenny where it is market day. We travel through the picturesque Wye Valley making a visit to Tintern.

WEDNESDAY – A full day in Cardiff today. Maybe visit the castle, Millennium Stadium, National Museum or visit Cardiff Bay waterfront. City or Bay there are bars and restaurants to suit all tastes.

THURSDAY – Sadly we must head home today. We will make a lunch stop at Wells, Britain's smallest cathedral town, before returning to Plymouth early evening.

This hotel does not have a lift, but there are 30 ground floor rooms and public areas are easily accessible. Please ensure you request a ground floor room at time of booking if required.
