

BUS COMPANY MUFTI DAY TO FUNDRAISE FOR LOCAL CHARITIES

For the 22nd year the bus drivers and support team from Plymouth CityBus will use their Mufti Fundraising Day to benefit local charities. On Thursday 17th December, many of the drivers will be allowed to leave their uniform at home and wear almost what ever they want as they fundraise for the Scott Development Centre, Macmillan Mustard Tree at Derriford Hospital and the City of Plymouth's Children's Fund.

The company's vintage open top bus will also be seen around the City complete with carol singers in both festive and fancy dress. Their aim will be to continue the tradition of collecting food and donations for the Plymouth Food Bank. The food will then be distributed to the elderly and homeless.

Bus Driver Mandy Jarvis will also be at the wheel in costume: "Our regular passengers enjoy the opportunity to join us on the Mufti fundraising day. We are always impressed with the generosity of people in the city and hope to beat last year's collection that raised over £3000."

Anyone wishing to donate food direct can contact the Plymouth food bank by calling 01752 211200 for information.

Mandy Jarvis will be one of the Plymouth CityBus staff driving to fundraise.
